

Special Issue :The Intercourse of People and Goods and Its Administration

The Intercourse of "People-Goods-Information" and the Studies on the Japanese Envoys to

China in the Tang Dynasty (Kentoshi)

Masaki Minagawa

Japanese Monks Visiting China in the Tang Dynasty and Overseas Information Brought Back by Them

Haruhito Kochi

Acceptance and Transition of the Images of Japanese Students Visiting China in the Tang Dynasty :

With Reference to the "Seven-Stringed Koto" and the "East Asian World"

Toyoji Hara

Diplomacy of Ming-zhou toward Japan in the Sung Dynasty Seen through the Correspondence

Satoshi Yamazaki

The Overseas Trade and the System of the Voyage of Ancient Japan

Makoto Watanabe

In Search of the Ancient East Asian World

The Tomb Inscription of Sei Shinsei Re-examined

Han Sheng

translation : Mayuko Kawakami

The Quasi-Kinship between Japan and Pohai : With Reference to the Possibility of a

Conception of the "Ancient East Asian World"

Norio Hirose

Remarks :

On the Prevalence of Smallpox in the 7th and 9th Years of the Tempyo Era

Megumi Oda

Miscellany :